DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-2 and 3-7, drawn to a method of broadcast plural program versions, classified in class 725, subclass 87.
 - II. Claims 8 and 9, drawn to a method of broadcasting a first program containing multiple versions, a second program containing multiple versions and determining if the two programs coincide, classified in class 725, subclass 93.
 - III. Claim 10, drawn to a method of broadcasting a first program containing multiple versions, a second program containing multiple versions and determining if the two programs coincide with ad insertions, classified in class 725, subclass 32.
 - IV. Claims 11-14, drawn to a method of broadcasting plural program versions with associating an ad determined by a first characteristic, classified in class 725, subclass 36.
 - V. Claims 15-17, drawn to inserting first and second advertisements in first and second programs respectively if channels are available, classified in class 725, subclass 95.
 - VI. Claims 19-21 and 22, drawn to a method of selecting a version of a program based on stored user preferences and a system for indication a viewer preference from a list of versions of a program and also selecting a transmitted version from plural version based on stored preferences, classified in class 725, subclass 35.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I, II, III, IV, V and VI are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable.

In the instant case, subcombination I has separate utility such as transmitting plural program versions over the Internet;

In the instant case, subcombination II has separate utility such as determining when two programs coincide over satellite transmission.

In the instant case, subcombination III has separate utility such determining if two programs coincide with ad insertion over broadcast radio.

In the instant case, subcombination IV has separate utility such broadcasting plural programs with associating an ad determined by food characteristics transmitted over telephone lines.

In the instant case, subcombination V has separate utility such as bandwidth allocation over the Internet.

In the instant case, subcombination VI has separate utility such as selecting a program version over from satellite radio. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. A telephone call was made to Jonathan Bockman on 03/21/06 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Alan M. Johnson whose telephone number is (571)272-7916. The examiner can normally be reached on 8am-5pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Christopher C. Grant can be reached on (571)272-7294. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
